Dear Name:

There's someone I'd like for you to meet...Shannon Dunnigan, the Shelter Manager at our emergency safe shelter. Shannon serves as an advocate to shelter residents, supervises and leads our other shelter employees, works with our NonResident Advocate to help clients apply for our Rapid Re-housing program, and much more. Shannon has been with DVPNCO for 3 years, and in that time she has served approximately 750 clients!

Often Shannon is the first person to greet a woman and her children as they enter the shelter. She listens to what the client is experiencing, helps the client identify what she wants to accomplish through the program, and sets them on the path of meeting their goals and finding a safe and independent life. As a manager, Shannon leads by example and works diligently to inspire the best performance from all of our shelter Advocates. She listens, responds, and leads with compassion, drive, and creativity. We're so lucky to have Shannon here to help survivors in our community!

This month is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and there are several ways you can join Shannon and the rest of the DVPNCO team in raising awareness and spreading the word about the services available through DVPNCO:

- Friday October 16th is the Six Nations Walk Against Domestic Violence at Hutchins Memorial in Ponca City at 2pm
- October 19th – 23rd you can walk through row after row of positive messages for survivors from community members displayed in front of the Pioneer Woman Statue
- Thursday October 22, join the Citizens Police Academy for an evening with Terri Nicolai, a nationally known and highly regarded survivor of domestic violence who will share her story of survival with us, free of charge at 6pm at the Poncan Theatre

I hope to see you at one of these events. And, if you see Shannon, be sure to thank her for her hard work on behalf of victims!

Sincerely,

Amanda McReynolds Doran

2015 July Fund Drive

Please join us in thanking these businesses and individuals who contributed to our fund drive this July. Because of you we reached our goal for this year! Thank you for your investment in the families we serve!
